2. We will record your complaint in our central register and open a separate file for your complaint. We will do this within seven days of receiving your complaint.
3. We will then start to investigate your complaint. This will normally involve the following steps.
  - We will pass your complaint to Gaynor Hill, our Client Care Director, within three days.
  - She will ask the member of staff who acted for you to reply to your complaint within 5 days of the complaint being recorded in our central register.
  - She will then examine their reply and the information in your complaint file. And, if necessary, she may also speak to them. This will take up to three days from receiving their reply and the file.
4. Mrs Hill will then invite you to a meeting and discuss and hopefully resolve your complaint. She will do this within five days of receiving the fee earners reply.
5. Within two days of that meeting Mrs Hill will write to you to confirm what took place and any solutions she has agreed with you.

If you do not want a meeting or it is not possible, Mrs Hill will send you a detailed reply to your complaint. This will include his suggestions for resolving the matter. She will do this within five days of completing the investigation.
